

- Week 27 Questions -

Opening Question: What is one possession you own that you would go to great lengths to find if it went missing? Try not to repeat answers!

Read Luke 15:1-32 together.

Questions from the text

- What stands out to you about the shepherd's response when he finds the sheep? What does Jesus' emphasis on rejoicing teach us about heaven's response to a sinner who repents?
- What themes connect all three parables? What do they collectively teach us about repentance, restoration, grace, and the joy of God?

Cross Reference

- Read Ezekiel 34:11–16 together.
- What is one thing we learn about God's heart as the Shepherd? How should that truth change how we respond to Him or those who are lost?

Application Questions

- What might it look like to actively search for the sheep that wandered away? How could we intentionally pursue that relationship this week?
- When experiencing seasons you have strayed away from God, what has practically helped you turn back toward Him?

Core Value: Community

As we look in Scripture, we see ways we are directed to surrender to Christ, be a part of his biblical community, and participate in his mission.

- How can our group become a community that welcomes people who are spiritually struggling, encourages repentance, and celebrates life change rather than expecting people to have everything together before they belong?
