

Rooted Family Week 4

Readings: Ephesians 5:15-17, Psalm 90:12, James 4:13-17

1. How do you personally feel about the passage of time in your life? Do you often feel like it slips away?
2. What does Paul mean when he says the days are evil? What does it look like to make the most of the time when the days are evil?
3. What is the connection between God teaching us to number our days and wisdom? What do you think of when you hear someone say, "Be wise with your time?"
4. From your perspective, what qualities do you think define a "successful" family in God's eyes?
5. Tim gave some practical steps for making the most of time with family: PATTERN your life after Jesus, MODEL surrender, BE mission-minded, DO community together, TEACH one another, PRAY with your family, SERVE together, PLAN together. Which of these do you feel drawn to focus on?

Book Resources: Justin Early: Habits of the Household, Cary Neuhoff: At Your Best, Jordan Raynor: Redeeming Your Time, John Mark Comer: The Ruthless Elimination of Hurry, Paul Tripp: Parenting, Family Devotionals: Bible Project

