

Rooted Family Week 5
Readings: Deuteronomy 6:1-9

1. How does understanding our identity in Christ influence our approach to parenting?
2. How do we balance teaching our children about right and wrong while emphasizing a relationship with God?
3. How does being part of a church community support our efforts in gospel-shaped parenting?
4. In what ways can we actively encourage generational faithfulness within our families?
5. In what ways can we assess if the gospel is truly the most important aspect of our family life?
