

Rooted Family Week 7

How does Paul's message in 1 Corinthians 7 help you view singleness as a gift rather than a burden?

In what ways can you prioritize your connection to Christ, regardless of your relationship status, as described in Colossians 2:6-10?

Why should we all make Christ preeminent in our lives according to Colossians 1:13-22

How has the Church both supported and challenged your connection to community as a single person? How can it do better?

How can singles in the Church provide meaningful contributions to their church communities, beyond simply receiving support? See Colossians 2:2-4

What does it mean to "live as though the time of the Lord is at hand" (1 Corinthians 7:29-31), and how does this influence your daily life?

How can you guard against isolating yourself from community, especially when it's easier than it has even been to do so?

How does being single help you uniquely live out your calling in Christ, and how can this be seen as an opportunity rather than a limitation?

What does "undistracted service" look like for you? How can you serve others, both inside and outside the Church, with undivided devotion?

How can singles be intentional in sharing the gospel and discipling others, especially in a world filled with distractions and competing priorities?
