

- Week 7 Questions -

Opening Question: If you had to leave everything behind to follow someone, what would be the hardest thing to give up?

Read Luke 5:1-11 together.

Questions from the text

- Simon Peter initially hesitated. What does his response reveal about human doubt and obedience?
- How did the miracle impact James and John? How might witnessing God's power change a person's perspective on life and work?

Cross Reference

Read Matthew 28:19-20 together.

- What does Peter's response to follow Jesus teach us about our expected obedience and response to the Great Commission?

Application Questions

- How can this passage challenge us in our own willingness to respond to God's call, even when it seems inconvenient or risky?
- How do you recognize God's presence and power in your everyday work or responsibilities? Does this happen frequently?

Core Value: Mission

As we look in Scripture, we see ways we are directed to surrender to Christ, be a part of his biblical community, and participate in his mission.

- What might it mean or look like for you today to "catch people" or share God's love with others in practical ways in our community or abroad?
