"The Happy Marriage Is the 'Me' Marriage"
The notion that the best marriages are those that bring satisfaction to the individual may seem counterintuitive. After all, isn't marriage supposed to be about putting the relationship first? Not anymore. In modern relationships, people are looking for a partnership, and they want partners who make their lives more interesting... who help each of them attain valued goals.
- Tara Parker-Pope, New York Times columnist

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF MARRIAGE?
-TO MAKE GOD KNOWN
-TO MAKE US HOLY

Love without truth is just sentimentality; it supports and affirms us but keeps us in denial about our flaws. Truth without love is harshness; it gives us information but in such a way that we cannot really hear it. God's saving love in Christ, however, is marked by both radical truthfulness about who we are and yet also radical, unconditional commitment to us. The merciful commitment strengthens us to see the truth about ourselves and repent. The conviction and repentance moves us to cling to and rest in God's mercy and grace.
