MERCY AMONG THE TOMBS
Luke 8:26–39
2

I. The One No One Could Reach

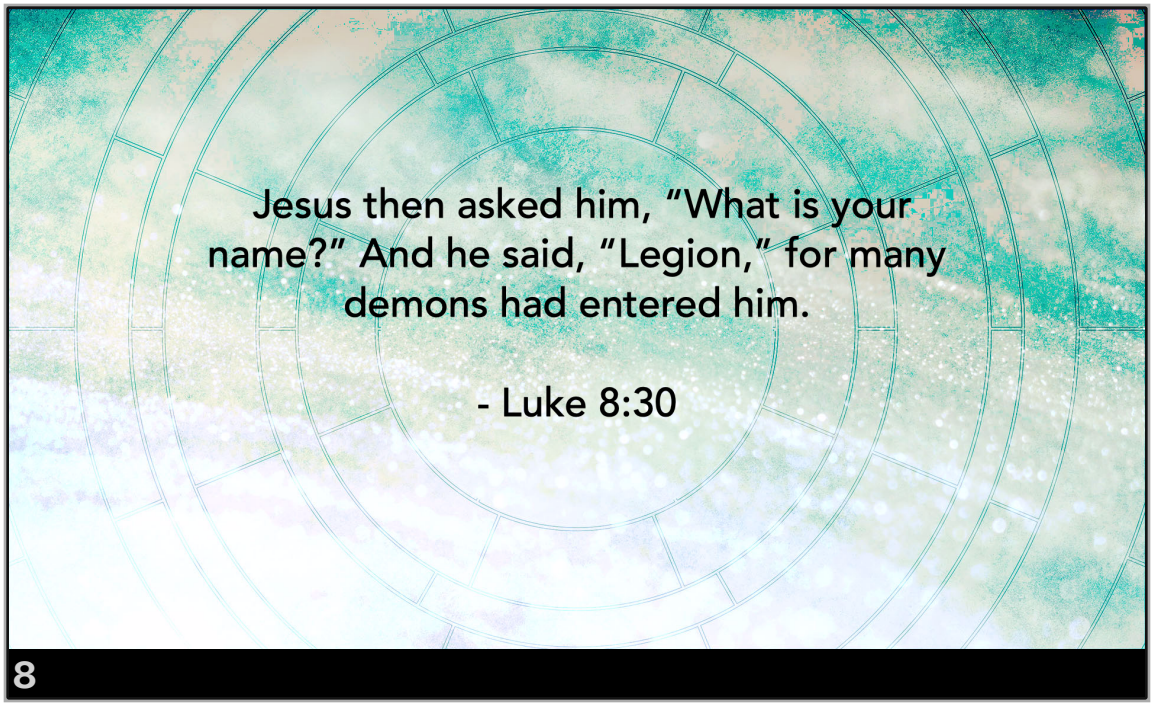

Luke 8:26–29

4

When Jesus had stepped out on land, there met him a man from the city who had demons. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he had not lived in a house but among the tombs.
- Luke 8:27
5

For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many a time it had seized him. He was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the desert.)
- Luke 8:29
6

II. The One Demons Couldn't Resist
Luke 8:30–33
7

Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," for many demons had entered him.
- Luke 8:30
8

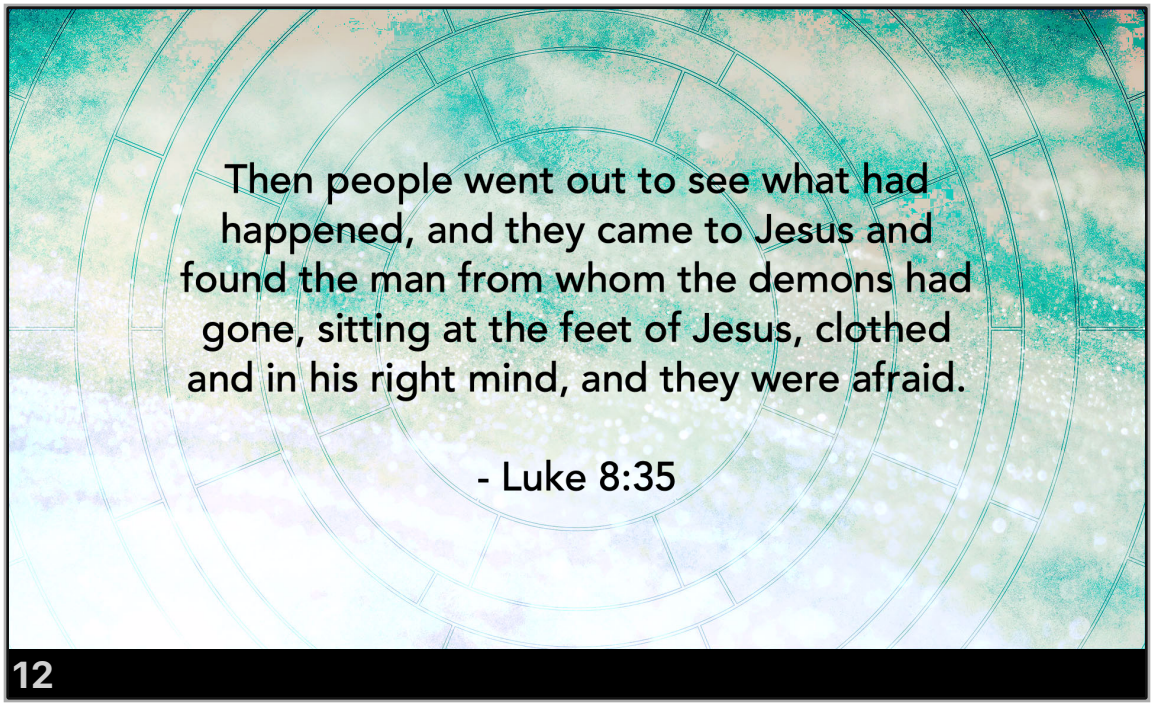

9

And they begged him not to command them to depart into the abyss. Now a large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside, and they begged him to let them enter these. So he gave them permission.

- Luke 8:31–32

10

III. The Fear That Missed Salvation
Luke 8:34–37
11

Then people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind, and they were afraid.
- Luke 8:35
12

Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked him to depart from them, for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned.

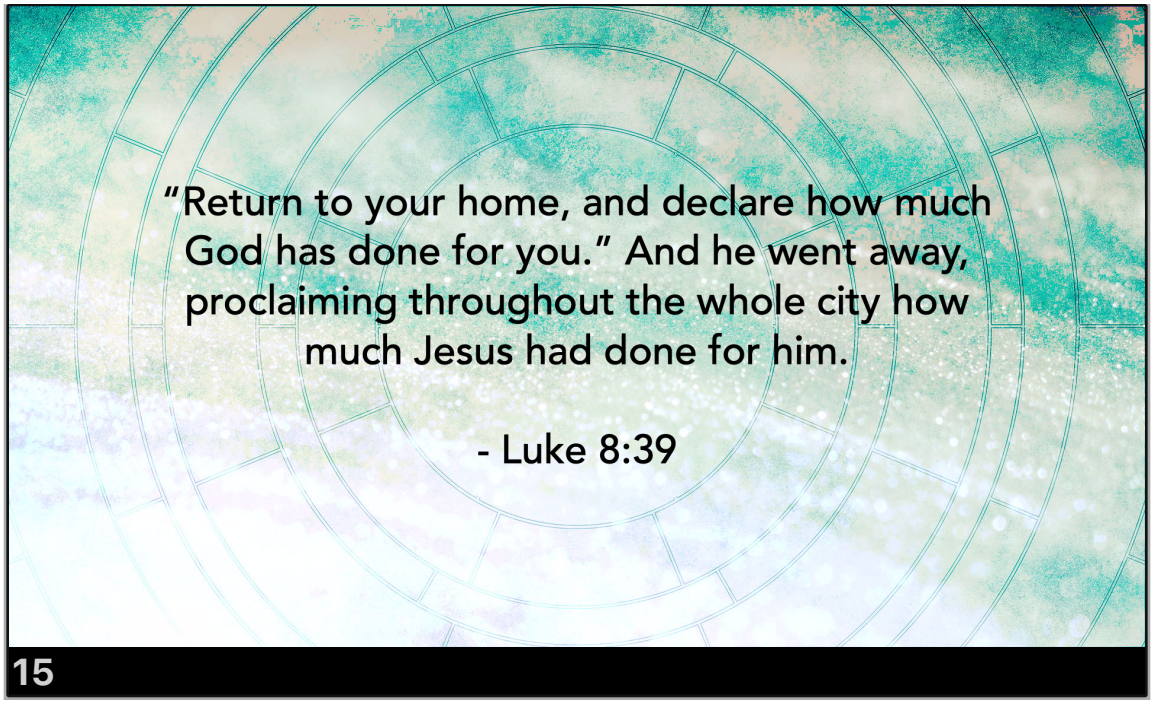

- Luke 8:37

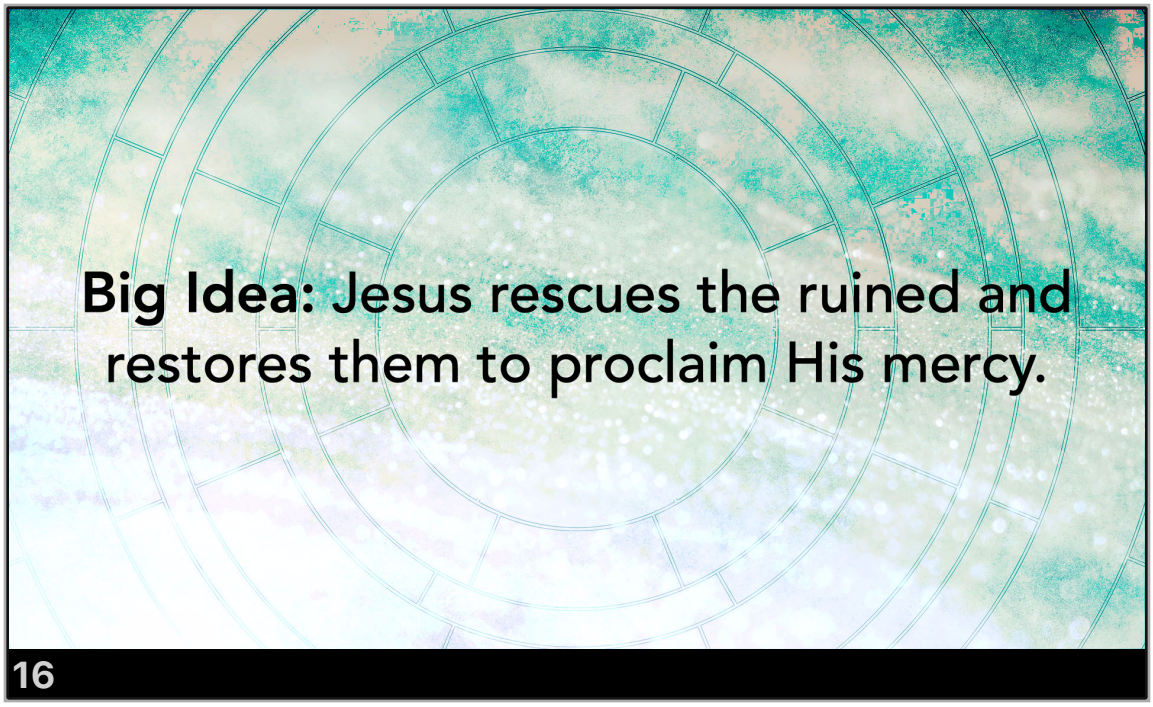

13

IV. The Mercy That Restores and Sends

Luke 8:38–39

14

"Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him.
- Luke 8:39
15

Big Idea: Jesus rescues the ruined and restores them to proclaim His mercy.
